

SUCCESSOR

Miller's Chances of Confirmation If He Is Appointed.

REPUBLICANS MAY JOIN THE DEMOCRATS IN OPPOSITION.

President Harrison Has a Hard Problem to Solve—He May Conclude Not to Act in the Matter, Leaving the Vacancy for Cleveland to Fill—Political Complexion of the Present Court.

New York, Jan. 25.—Who will succeed the late Justice Lamar on the Supreme Bench of the United States is a question that is being asked by the politicians from one end of the country to the other. Interest in the question is intensified by the fact that President Harrison is soon to retire from office.

Politicians are discussing the question whether President Harrison will nominate a successor to the late justice. If Mr. Harrison had been re-elected he might have delayed the matter of making a nomination as long as he did in naming a successor to the late Justice Bradley, but if he proposes to act he must do so speedily. Mr. Harrison has a hard problem to solve.

It is believed at the Capitol that should President Harrison nominate a Republican to fill the vacancy the Democratic Senators would oppose his confirmation. The Republican Senators refused to confirm Vice-President-elect Stevenson's nomination to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, when Mr. Cleveland made that selection four years ago. The Republicans based their objection on the ground that as Mr. Cleveland was about to retire from office it would be unjust to the incoming Administration for him to make a life appointment. The Democrats propose to give the Republicans the benefit of their own argument.

The present situation is a remarkable one. If Atty.-Gen. Miller be nominated not only will the Democrats oppose him, but some of the Republicans will also oppose him. Mr. Miller is in the place of one of the other Justices had he entertained any hope that the nomination would be confirmed without utter opposition. On one occasion at least the Senate was sounded by Mr. Miller's friends and the result was so discouraging that the Attorney-General's name was dropped from the list of possibilities.

Aside from the specific objections to Atty.-Gen. Miller comes the question of party policy. Six Republicans are on the Supreme Bench now. Democrats think the proportion is too great, and while the possible retirement of Justice Field and Blatchford during Cleveland's administration would give him the nominations, but one Democrat would be gained. Its influence would be counteracted by the placing of another Republican on the bench at this time. If Mr. Harrison does conclude to nominate a Republican successor to the late Justice Lamar, the name would not be likely to go to the Senate for confirmation. Two filibustering tactics on the part of Democrats could delay confirmation until the present Congress expires under the Constitution.

Among the Republicans spoken of as possibilities are Atty.-Gen. Miller, Judge Speer of Georgia, Judge Don A. Farde of Louisiana, Judge Nathan G. West of Virginia, Secretary of the Interior Noble, M. M. Estee of California. Atty.-Gen. Miller is assumed to be the personal choice of the President. If some other Republican be named it would be taken as an evidence that no hope of his confirmation existed at the White House.

Justice Lamar, it is argued, was the only southern man on the Supreme Bench to be elected to the circuit in which Louisiana is included. These facts, added to the further fact that the Democrats are in the minority in the minds of Democratic lawyers to justify the nomination by President Harrison of a Southern Democrat. Failing to appoint a Democrat, he should leave the matter open to his successor, they say. One of the candidates mentioned as possessing a good chance is Judge Howell. Edmund Howell is a Judge of the Sixth Judicial Circuit, which includes the States of Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee. The Republican Justices on the Supreme Bench are said to favor the appointment of Judge Jackson.

Ex-Minister Phelps of Vermont, another Democrat, is mentioned. At a Republican Senatorial caucus it is said the question of a successor to the late Justice Lamar was informally discussed. Opposition to Atty.-Gen. Miller is said to have dropped out. The drift of the remarks indicated that Mr. Miller's name would not be received with enthusiasm. The sense of the consultation seemed to be that if a man unobjectionable to every Republican and Democrat could be found he would be supported. In other words, if the caucus can name the appointee he will receive the full Republican support.

THE WINNERS

Result of the Post-Dispatch Contest Open to "Want" Advertisers.

To find the most popular advertisement under any specified classification in the want columns of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH is by no means the easiest of tasks, yet it is one which thousands of readers attack every week. The splendid prizes offered weekly to readers and to advertisers who are successful in naming the "ad." which will receive the most answers are coveted by everyone, and as a result the competition for their possession is remarkably keen. There are two distinct contests, one open to all readers of the Post-Dispatch and the other open to all who insert an advertisement in the want columns of any issue of the Post-Dispatch. Every Sunday the particular specifications under which all guesses must be made in each contest is changed, and prizes are offered to those successful in picking out the particular "ad." under classification named, addressed care Post-Dispatch, which receives the greatest number of replies. This week all guesses were to be made from advertisements appearing under headings of Boarding, Board and Lodging Wanted, Help Wanted, Male, Clerical and Salesman.

The "ad." par excellence which appeared under these headings read as follows:

WANTED—Two quiet young men want good room with bath in respectable neighborhood, not more than $25 per month each, including this office.

Twelve cash prizes were offered to all advertisers successful in picking out this "ad." and the award was made in the order in which the guesses were opened, as follows:

The first prize of $10 in gold, for the first correct answer examined, was awarded to Loretto Sagehorn, 1320 Glasgow avenue.

The second prize of $5 in gold, for the second correct answer examined, was awarded to J. E. Gavin, 2949 Sheridan avenue.

Ten prizes of $1 each for the next ten correct answers examined were awarded to C. E. Cummings, 2228 Madison street; Frank Carter, 304 North Sixth street; H. Roesch, 6504 Michigan avenue; Gus Le Page, 112 North Ninth street; R. W. Tierney, 2828 Washington avenue; William Miller, 1308 North Fourteenth street; Katie Heren, 1326 Hickory street; Mrs. W. Para, 2651 Olive street; L. J. Ekberg, 1212 Washington avenue; and Birdie Doyle, 2909 Dayton street.

The winners have been notified of their success and can secure their prizes upon application to the cashier at this office.

Although this contest was only inaugurated a few weeks ago, the public are entering into the competition with a vim and spirit that promise well for its long life. Each advertisement appearing in the want columns is carefully read and closely scrutinized. The relative merit of each one is weighed and discussed in the attempt to find the most promising of all. The most acute judgment must necessarily be used in making the selection, in addition to this contest a small antee is offered to all want advertisers in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH that their wants will be filled before the following Wednesday, or later, if necessary, at the discretion of the Post-Dispatch. This week the prize was given in the form of a free of charge, is given in Thursday's paper.

The contest will continue every week. To all advertisers in the "want" columns of the Post-Dispatch this week will be given a blank upon which they can make their guess as to the most successful "want" advertisement in next Sunday's paper. Not only do advertisers secure an absolute guarantee that their needs will be filled, but they are given an opportunity to win one of the following prizes:

First correct answer, $10.
Second correct answer, $5.
Next ten correct answers, $1 each.
Total, $35.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.
Only advertisements addressed "Care Post-Dispatch" can be selected, as there is no means of keeping a record of answers not so sent.

Answers will not be received later than noon of Monday following the Sunday on which the contest is made. All persons putting in "want" ads., either Daily or Sunday, will receive a "want" ad. blank, but guesses will be made only on the "want" ad. blank.

"Want" ad. blanks will be furnished to patrons inserting a "want" at the counter; also at all of the Post-Dispatch branch offices throughout the city. The blanks will be broken on envelopes containing the filled blanks and the first one examined containing the correct answer will receive the largest reward. The blanks will be sent in at once to their office, and no one on until the twelve rewards are given out.

No one but "want" advertisers will be eligible to this contest. Employers or connections of employees of the Post-Dispatch cannot send in guesses.

A MODERN ALSATIA

Present Condition of Affairs in the Indian Territory.

OUTLAWS WHO ARE A MENACE TO CITIZENS OF NEIGHBORING STATES.

Criminals Find Refuge in the Territory by Hundreds—Ineffort to Suppress Outlawry—The Citizens of Oklahoma Greatly Annoyed by Depredations—Settlement the Only Solution.

One great advantage that will be gained by the opening of the Indian Territory will be the suppression of lawlessness. This is of importance not only to the Territory itself, but also to the neighboring States. It is sometimes denied that the crime in this part of the country extends that incident to other frontier communities, but the court records of Fort Smith, where criminals captured on the Indian lands are tried, prove that in no part of the United States is crime so rampant. The list of men executed at Fort Smith is a fairly long time, and great, on an average, as the number of hangings in any State of the Union, while it is well known that thousands of men who deserve hanging are at large.

OVERSEEN BY OUTLAWS.
No Deputy Marshal can enter the northwestern part of the Territory for the purpose of making an arrest, save at the peril of his life, and many are killed or wounded every year in the performance of their duty. The outlaws keep large districts in a condition of terror, and make the Territory a lair from which they can safely forth to rob and murder, finding a safe refuge when they return. As long as the country is allowed to remain in its present condition this state of affairs is likely to continue. The criminals are seldom Indians, being nearly exclusively whites, and the Indians detest and dread them, and would be only too glad to get rid of the plague. But the police is inefficient, the processes of law unfamiliar, and any information given to United States marshals is likely to be bloodily revenged. The result is that one of the richest sections of the Southwest has become little better than a den of outlaws.

CRIME UNCONTROLLABLE.
But crime is by no means confined to these white ruffians. The Indians generally are chary of interfering with those not born in or adopted by the tribes, but within their own organization criminals exercise a great influence for evil. Stock is run off, houses robbed and men and women are murdered with comparative impunity. In most of the tribes justice is administered in a very primitive manner. But two punishments are known, flogging and shooting; while the law against murder is not very largely in the majority, deplores this condition of affairs, the state of the finances is such as to render good government and penitentiary system. It is a strange anomaly that people who own vast tracts of valuable lands which they cannot use themselves, and which they are anxious to sell to others are to be, should be compelled by poverty to witness the crime, the lawless element is always ready to receive into its ranks white criminals who have fled from justice on account of crimes committed in neighboring States, and the influence of all of this property to its numbers. Thus for years the Indian Territory has been a veritable Alcatraz.

MUCH OF THE opposition to the opening of the country to settlement is based on the fact that such a step would deprive them of their refuge. The citizens of Oklahoma living near the line of the reservation are complaining bitterly of the losses they suffer from these outlaws. Cattle and horses are stolen continually run off, and robberies are not infrequently occurring. The lawless element is nearly hopeless; so severe has been the loss, and so threatening is the danger, that few care to settle in the territory. A new territory. If for no other reason than the suppression of crime, the lands should be placed upon the market. The territory can do little toward the suppression of outlawry, and not only are the peaceable inhabitants of the territory, but citizens pursuing their avocations in peace, but threatened by the lawless element. The citizens of neighboring States are constantly threatened, and the lawless element is up there, there is little hope for the development of the Indian Territory.

BETTER BE ON YOUR GUARD

There is a Possibility That a European Epidemic May Invade Us Again This Year—A Suggestion in Time.

The latest news from London indicates the prevalence of a great deal of influenza, not only in that city, but throughout England and Europe. This is the way the grip epidemic of last year started, and it is the highest part of wisdom and common sense to keep the system fortified against an attack of this terrible complaint.

There is an unusual amount of coughing, sneezing, headache, pain in the muscles, especially from the shoulders and arms, cold feet; in fact, all the usual grip symptoms. You may say, I do not fear the grip. But do you not fear the terrible things which may be brought on by influenza, which may come almost in a moment and cause your death within a day? More people die suddenly from influenza than from any other cause. Why? Because it comes unexpectedly, because it gives no warning, has no symptoms other than those of a cold, and yet it is the most fatal of all known diseases.

In view of these solemn facts, what shall any sensible man or woman do who reads these words? Manifestly guard against the coming of this dangerous disease. How? Not by doing the system with some pure stimulant, or tonic power. There are many which claim to possess this quality, but there is but one which actually does possess it. That one is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It has stood the test of years, and is the most popular preparation to-day known to the human race. It is not only a tonic, but it is generally used and is universally admitted to be the best and most reliable of all. Do not permit your druggist or grocer to persuade you otherwise, but insist upon having what you call for.

FOR A NEW RECORD.

Maud S. Will Take Up the Fight Against Time.

PREPARATIONS ALREADY BEGUN FOR THE SEASON'S GREAT WORK.

Bonner Determined That His Mare Shall Be Queen—Mike Mooney Looking for Fight—The Legislature and Boxing—Barron-Purcell Encounter—Sporting News of All Sorts.

New York, Jan. 25.—Horsemen may look for a new record for mile trotting during the coming season, as Robert Bonner, the veteran horseman, expects Maud S. to establish a time for the distance that will stand unbroken for a long time. The celebrated mare is now being jogged daily over the covered private track of her owner at Tarrytown, and is keeping her muscles strong and elastic for a trial later on.

During a conversation yesterday Mr. Bonner said: "Maud S. would not be trained if I did not think she would wipe out all records that have ever been made."

Talking about his favorite, Mr. Bonner warmed to his subject and entered upon his most interesting conversation about his remarkable mare.

"Maud has not been speeded for two years now," said he. "I undertook to use her for breeding last year, but she did not prove in foal. I do not think she has ever been called upon for all there is in her. A horse with her remarkable endurance I have never seen."

Blood will tell, and the old Lexington stock is apparent. Why, in her last trial, when she went to the half post in 1:04 1/2 and came back in 1:04 1/4, something unparalleled in trotting records. At Fleetwood I have driven her to top wagon a half mile in 1:06, and I think I can beat that."

"I have driven her myself on my covered track at the Tarrytown farm and I find she is in her best possible form. She gets a regular jog daily, but is never let out for speed for a single step. My object is to keep her joints and muscles active and give her just enough work to keep her in trim."

"I believe a horse should be trained exactly as an athlete, with enough work to develop muscle and keep stiffness out, and that it should never be pushed when in training. That should be reserved for the final effort. On this principle, also, I use a cart weighing about 100 pounds, so that when she comes to speed in a race, her racing sulky will appreciate the marked difference in weight."

"In the days of Florida Temple they turned horses out in the winter. Freezing them out just enough to keep them in trim. I believe, I believe, Moderate but constant jogging is what they need, instead of a rest that leaves the work to be done over again each year."

Robert Bonner's first horse was purchased by him in 1865. He is of the breed of accident, rather than great gusto. He had been run down in health by too close application to the track, and was sold to W. J. Ledger, and his family physician, who was an old friend, made him a check at his office one morning, and afterward enjoyed an hour's riding each day, accompanied by the doctor. The exercise seemed to do him good, and he was afterwards substituted for the saddle horse.

AT EAST ST. LOUIS.

Jennie Harding, Van Zant, who has at last rounded to form, and Money Maker were the only favorites that won at the East St. Louis track yesterday. Jennie Harding was a red-hot one, having been backed down to 6 to 1.

At the meeting of the Board of Public Improvements, the route to be laid out by that body, and that they be sold to the highest bidder subject to the approval of the Mayor, Comptroller and the Council, was passed.

The bills for abating smoke in the city were passed by a vote of 18 to 4.

THE RING.
Some time ago Mike Mooney wrote to Harry McNery of New Orleans, known to pugilistic readers as "Bantam," asking him to sound Andy Bowen on the subject of a match. Nothing came of the matter, however as Bowen has been very busy since his victory over Fielden, and has not had time to write back to him. Mooney is in dead earnest and as soon as any of these gentlemen signify their willingness to make a match the St. Louisian's money will be forthcoming.

THE SHORT-HAired FRATERNITY, who were thrown into a spasm of delightful anticipation by the introduction of the Gurnez bill to legalize boxing contests, had a damper put upon their spirits yesterday. The country legislator, who always thrusts himself prominently forward when legislation affecting the big cities is in progress, got in his deadly work. An amendment was tacked on, making it necessary to obtain a permit from the Chief of Police in a city or the Sheriff of a county before the boxing bout can be held. Even if passed with this amendment the bill will be killed, and the sporting fraternity will be left with nothing to carry on their untrammeled right to carry on their exhibitions. The bill was introduced by Hon. J. M. Smith, of St. Louis, as great a haven for fighters as New Orleans. As the law stands at present the police are powerless to prevent boxing contests. Their position is necessarily hostile. Under the Gurnez law, as amended, they will be permitted to tolerate them, and the Gurnez law passed unamended they would have had to keep their hands off.

SANBORN DEFEATS PURCELL.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Welterweight Jim Barron of Australia knocked out Paddy Purcell in seven rounds last night in the arena of the California Athletic Club. There was a heavy crowd of spectators, and the bout was one of the most exciting of the season. Barron, who is not more, but the Australian had the advantage in height and weight. There were a number of exchanges in the first two rounds, both men generally aiming for the head. Purcell landed several times in the third and then went down from a right on the jaw. He was up in a moment, however, and fought hard, driving several right jabs into Barron's head and receiving several in return.

THE PRICE OF TICKETS for the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight before the Crescent City Club, on March 6, has been fixed as follows: General admission, $10; reserved seats, $15; box seats, $25.

Tom Calhoun writes from England that he is ready to try conclusions with any man in America at 110 pounds. Calhoun is a former champion, who has won several titles, and is expected to be a formidable opponent.

Reddy Gallagher has resigned his position as instructor with the Denver Athletic Club in order to meet less Smith of Colorado in an eight-round bout on Saturday night. Either H. M. Leeds of Atlantic City or Mike Myers of New Orleans, who is expected to be a formidable opponent, will be the man to take the place of Gallagher.

Mike Daly of Bangor and Paddy Kerrigan of Boston were stated to be at 225 at Madison Square Garden last Saturday night. Either H. M. Leeds of Atlantic City or Mike Myers of New Orleans, who is expected to be a formidable opponent, will be the man to take the place of Gallagher.

The first big bet on the probable result of the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight was made at New Orleans, Jan. 6. $1,200 that Hall would beat his countryman. There were equally heavy bets on the other side, and it is expected that even greater odds will be offered when the books open for the fight.

ELECTRIC LAMP PATENTS.

Rival Claims of Inventors Edison and Goebel.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—With reference to the defense offered by the Beacon Lamp Co. in Boston in the suit of the Edison company to restrain it from manufacturing electric incandescent lamps, alleged to be infringements on the Edison system, Mr. Franklin Pope, in the Electric Engineer for to-day, gives a full history of the inventions by Goebel. The electric lights manufactured by Goebel in New York in 1859 are claimed by the Edison company and by many expert electricians to antedate and anticipate Edison's inventions.

Mr. Pope recalls Goebel's frequent appearance in the streets of New York just before the war, with his somewhat crude but effective apparatus for making incandescent light, which apparatus the Hanoverian philosopher exhibited to the public along with a huge telescope, also made by himself, for a small consideration. Heinrich Goebel was born in Springer, Germany, in 1818; he pursued various experiments in galvanic and magneto-electric machinery under Prof. Monaghan before coming to this country in 1848. He then established a little optician's shop in New York, continuing his experiments with electricity. One night he astonished the citizens and called out the fire department by erecting an electric arc light on his roof, supplied by burning out some wood from an iron ferrule that the carbonized fibers were conductors of electricity. This led him to construct an incandescent lamp in a vacuum, the filament being held between two wires.

Mr. Goebel states as his reason for not coming forward sooner that he speaks English with difficulty and cannot read it at all, and thought that the lamp was not valuable in the way he used it, as it was too expensive to be anything but a plaything.

Samuel Sloan, another of the directors of the Manhattan company, also denied the rumor that the purchase had been made.

SETTLED THE SHORTAGE.

Closing the Account of the Defaulting St. Charles Treasurer.

ST. CHARLES, Mo., Jan. 25.—The twelve bondsmen for John Mittelberger, the defaulting Treasurer of St. Charles County, have settled up the amount of the shortage with the County Court. The County Court has had some trouble in ascertaining the exact amount of the shortage, owing to the badly involved condition of Mr. Mittelberger's affairs. The amount is now known to be $16,620, all of which has been paid up by the bondsmen. It was thought when the shortage was first announced that the county funds were those involved, but it was found upon investigation that the funds appropriated were school funds. The causes of Mr. Mittelberger's failure are not known exactly, but it is thought that it is the result of speculation in wheat and stocks. It is known definitely that he lost some money in the failure of the St. Charles Tobacco Co., several years ago.

Mr. Mittelberger will resign very soon, and the friends of Mr. John B. Thro, Jr., will at once file a petition with the Governor for his appointment. As Mr. Thro is the only man in the field at present, it is probable that he will be the appointee.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 25.—It is stated by members of his family that Bishop Brooks died without making any will. As Mr. Thro is the only man in the field at present, it is probable that he will be the appointee.

Robbed the Corner Stone.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 25.—It was discovered today that the cavity under the corner stone of the Del Volador market place in this city, which was laid fifty years ago, had recently been robbed of the zinc casket and its contents, valued at several thousand dollars. The articles and valuables deposited in the casket were two silver medals, ancient medals of gold, silver and copper and also some of more recent date, the medals being descriptive of the declaration of independence and of the time of Turbide, specimens of the current Mexican coins, a calendar, a plate of taboys and the decree ordering the building of the market.
